UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

PRINCE ASIEL BEN ISRAEL

No. 13 CR 572

Magistrate Judge Young B. Kim

UNDER SEAL

PROTECTIVE ORDER GOVERNING DISCOVERY

Upon the agreed motion of the government, pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(d), it is hereby ORDERED:

1. The criminal complaint and affidavit in this case are subject to this protective order and may be used by defendant and defendant's counsel (defined as counsel of record in this case) solely in connection with the defense of this case, and for no other purpose, and in connection with no other proceeding, without further order of this Court.

2. Defendant and defendant's counsel shall not disclose the criminal complaint and affidavit or their contents directly or indirectly to any person or entity other than persons employed to assist in the defense and other persons to whom the Court may authorize disclosure (collectively, "authorized persons").

3. Defendant, defendant's counsel, and authorized persons shall not copy or reproduce the materials except in order to provide copies of the materials for use in connection with this case by defendant, defendant's counsel, and authorized persons. Such copies and reproductions shall be treated in the same manner as the original materials.

4. Defendant, defendant's counsel, and authorized persons shall not disclose any notes or records of any kind that they make in relation to the contents of the materials, other than to authorized persons, and all such notes or records are to be treated in the same manner as the original materials.

5. Before providing materials to an authorized person, defense counsel must provide the authorized person with a copy of this Order.

6. The restrictions set forth in this Order no longer apply if the criminal complaint and affidavit are unsealed in this case.

7. Nothing contained in this Order shall preclude any party from applying to this Court for further relief or for modification of any provision hereof.
